Vanier Scholarship

University of British Columbia(UBC)

To attract and retain world-class doctoral students, the Graduate School of the University of British Columbia is granting Vanier Canada Graduate Scholarships. The Vanier Canada Graduate Scholarships (Vanier CGS) program is designed to attract and retain world-class doctoral students by supporting students who demonstrate both leadership skills and a high standard of scholarly achievement in graduate studies in the social sciences and humanities, natural sciences and engineering, and health-related fields. The Vanier CGS is valued at $50,000 per year for up to three years.
